

UNIVERSITY:FUTURE FESTIVAL 2024

The Festival

The largest event on the future of (digital) academic education: The University:Future Festival (U:FF) 2024 will take place under the theme "Tales of Tomorrow" from June 5 to 7, 2024.

Tales of Tomorrow

Stories construct our reality and the future is created by our narratives here and now. This will be discussed at the University:Future Festival 2024.

Organisation

The U:FF is organized by the Hochschulforum Digitalisierung (HFD) and the Stiftung Innovation in der Hochschullehre (StIL), and supported by the Stifterverband (SV).

Participation

Participation is free both physically and digitally. In 2023, 5,500 tickets were issued.

PROGRAMME

The program is broadly conceived. The focus areas for 2024: Future Skills, AI, and Future Scenarios.

The confirmed keynote speakers for 2024 include Maja Göpel, Silja Graupe, Nele Hirsch, Armin Himmelrath, and Julia Kloiber.

FORMAT

The festival is "digital first". Physical participation is possible in Berlin (main stage) and at partner stages in Bochum, Heilbronn, Leipzig, and Nuremberg.

PHILOSOPHY

The content is largely sourced from the community. The call for contributions is open until February 12, 2024.
